Q. I'm curious about why so many actresses let their husbands be their managers even if they never had experience managing, like Donna Lauvel and Ann Jillian, for example. Darlene B.

A. Maybe because they trust them.

Q. I was wondering if Michael J. Fox plans on doing a "Back to the Future: IV" and if Sigourney Weaver would consider doing another "Alien" sequel. Tressie C.

A. According to Fox, if there is another "Back to the Future" sequel it will be without him. As for Weaver, she would consider another "Alien." Pick it!

Q. How did Marlon Brando and Matthew Broderick get along during because Brando seems like a really tough nut to crack on a personal level. Frederic R.

A. According to Broderick, "Marlon is my hero. It was like a dream and he was very friendly — and very funny."

Q. How does Ann Miller remain so fresh and vibrant? I know that her dancing keeps her in great shape, but for 87 years old, she looks fabulous. What's her secret? Delia M.

A. Ms Miller's book, "Tapping Into the Force," reveals her beauty secrets. Hint: sparkling apple cider. Drink it. Bathe in it. Splash it. Sprinkle it. Gargle it. Brush your teeth with it. Shampoo your hair with it. Rinse your mouth with it. Wash your face with it. Shave your legs with it. Oh, and drink it.

Q. Please settle a bet. My friend and I are very big fans of ABC-TV's soap opera, "All My Children." According to my friend, actor Patrick Bauchau, who portrays Will, is from a very famous family. Is this true? I know he looks very familiar but for the life of me, I cannot place him.

A. Patrick Stuart is the son of Chad Stuart, who if you remember was part of the popular 1960s' rock group Chad and Jeremy.

Q. What's up next for actor Michael Douglas? Our fan club just cannot get enough of this fine actor. Douglas fans from Michigan.

A. Next February, Michael begins filming a sexual thriller titled "Basic Instinct." Reportedly, Douglas will receive some $15 million for the role. The co-star is Sharon Stone, who is enjoying raves for her work on "Total Recall" a summer box-office blockbuster.

Q. Will Barry Manilow be going on the concert tour in the near future? Roger T.

A. Barry is going to be very busy this fall, but only in Atlantic City, New Jersey, where he is going to be making his directorial debut in the stage presentation of "Copacabana," for 1 season. The production opens September 25, 1990.

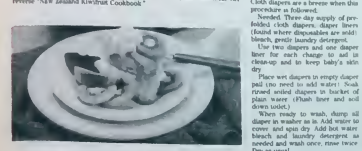
THE CHOPPING BLOCK

by Philomena Corraderno

Would you ignore that funny, funny, brown-stained fruit if you knew that under that strange skin is a vibrant green uniquely flavored flesh rich in potassium and vitamins C and E? To me, it tastes like a blend of banana, honeydew and pineapple. It started life as the Chinese gooseberry, and earlier this century, it made its way to New Zealand where its name became "kiwifruit." In other parts of the world, it is known simply as kiwi.

Outside of New Zealand, kiwi has been devouring main dishes, salads, appetizers and desserts for a couple of decades. But New Zealanders knew better — they don't cast kiwi fruit in the garnish role. They recognize its versatility and use it in stews and casseroles, they coarsely chop it and use it instead of tomato for a salsa with mint instead of cilantro. Or they mash it and blend it with mint, garlic, ginger root, soy sauce and sugar to serve with lamb.

Here is a timely dessert. Kiwifruit Peach Shortcake. Following that is a main course for roast leg of lamb, which was created by Jan Bolton for her reverse "Nz Zealand Kiwifruit Cookbook."



KIWIFRUIT-PEACH SHORTCAKE

1¾ cups flour
5 tablespoons sugar,divided
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter
½ cup whipping cream, for shortcake
1 egg
8 New Zealand kiwifruit, sliced
1 large fresh peach, sliced
2 cups whipping cream, for topping
2 tablespoons orange liqueur (optional)

Combine flour, one tablespoon sugar, the baking powder and salt. Cut butter into the dry ingredients until it is the size of small peas. Beat ½ cup cream with the egg, pour liquid into dry ingredients and combine with a few swift strokes. Turn out on floured board and knead 10 times until smooth. Pat into seven-inch square. Cut into eight triangles. Place on baking sheet and bake in center of 400F oven for eight to 10 minutes, or until lightly browned. Whip two cups cream with remaining four tablespoons sugar and orange liqueur to get soft peaks. To assemble, split sh.,ortcake triangles. Top each with whipped cream. Kiwifruit and peach slices. Place remaining shortcake halves over and top with dollop of cream and additional fruit. Makes eight servings.

LAMB WITH EMERALD MINT SAUCE

1 leg of lamb (about 6 pounds)
½ cup red currant jelly, warmed
8 or 4 kiwifruit
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon sugar
5 tablespoons finely chopped fresh mint

Place lamb, fat side up, on a rack in roasting pan. Bake in 325F oven 25 to 30 minutes per pound for medium, 30 to 35 minutes per pound for well done. Brush frequently with warm red currant jelly. Twirl six to eight servings.

Peel fruit and mash well, or puree in food processor or blender until just pureed. Don't overprocess. Stir in lemon juice, sugar and mint. Serve with hot or cold lamb. Makes about one cup.

Q. I'm a Susan Anton fan, and always thought Sylvester Stallone missed out on a great chance to be with a great lady when he broke up with her. Can you tell me what friends have been doing since she made her last exercise video? Thanks. Belinda C.

A. Well, for one thing, the ex-baroque beauty obviously prefers her what she preaches in her exercise video. She looks great. She's also looking great in her new nightclub act which has been receiving rave shows in Las Vegas. Atlantic City and Lake Tahoe. Next month, she takes her act to the Big Apple where she'll be performing in the elite Rainbow & Stars room in Rock- efeller Center. Ballroom nightclub appearances, hmm, hmm gets in some TV guest shots and is up for a new film.

Q. Now that Bruce Willis is getting all this good press, doesn't anyone remember when he was less than amiable while doing "Moonlighting" with Cybill Shepherd? How come those guys get the white-wash treatment just because they turn up with a bit show? A. Cybill Fan

A. Come on, let's be fair. People claim to the screen said that neither star was exactly in the pinnacle of integrity. By the same token, inside ars know that neither was quite the "bitch" or boorish she or he was made out to be. Remember one director reportedly said when asked which he preferred working with on the TV set. It depends on how they feel about the script, each actor was anything on the day. Whenever we finished a segment, I'd say to myself thank goodness I'm not married to either one of them." And speaking of being married to one or them, the Willis-Demi union is about dead. Bruce's wife is an interesting one.

Q. I read that Dwol Moore lost friends that she'll get an Oscar for her work in "Ghost," and that she'd accept once if must breaking up her marriage to (Rene) Willis because he'd sweetie. Al B.

A. I'd say we don't have to worry about that possibility for some time. While "Ghost" is a good movie and has been a good job in it Bruce is not likely to have to compete with Oscar, at least not this year.

Q. Why does Johnny Carson hang on? He's got enough money. Let him quit and make Jay Leno permanent host of the Tonight Show. Jill K

A. Why should Johnny quit if he enjoys coming to work? That is the answer.

DIAPER DILEMMA SOLVED Many disposable diapers are not very absorbable diapers because they believe cloth diapers are too much work, and promotes more diaper rash than disposables. That's not true. Cloth diapers are a breeze when this procedure is followed.

Needed. Three day supply of pre-folded cloth diapers (Gerber size) (found where disposables are sold) bleach, gentle laundry detergent.

Use two diapers and one diaper liner for each change to aid in clean-up, and to keep baby's skin dry.

Place wet diapers in empty diaper pail (no need to add water) Soak rinsed soiled diapers in bucket of plain water (Flush liner and soil down toilet).

When ready to wash, dump all diaper in washer as is Add water to cover and spin dry Add hot water bleach and laundry detergent as needed and wash once, rinse twice Dry as usual.

Have a dry, happy and rash free baby save loads of money and help save our environment by washing your own cloth diapers. It's easy! Jone P., Lake Zurich, Ill

YOUR HOROSCOPE

by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Mix ups in communications could mean several more optimistic and unjudgmental. Your temporary don't gossip his way. It is probably not the best time to get involved in money spent the careful of sooner owners whose shopping bend disputes could also arise now.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) There's just enough of those little things going wrong now to feel that you're not in the driver's seat. Don't let minor frustrations disturb your ego. Mood shifts are likely with the result that you spend a good part of the day copying with them. Don't make any important use of moderation. Keep a tight rein on sensitivities.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your ability and best bet when the between attitudes of acquaintances gives you a "take it or leave it" view of socializing now. Avoid those who waste your time. It's hard to get things coasting in your career now. Business and friendship don't mix as well as they should. Some are evasive and not ready for commitment.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You may not be pleased with the advice you receive now. Nothing goes wrong but you don't exactly drum up support for your enthusiasms. There are just too many loose ends dangling to be satisfied with a boundary proposition as is. What needs to be worked out probably won't occur now.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's difficult to get two heads to work as one now. Differences could arise about both investment and pleasure opportunities. Nothing major however is at stake. Either you feel others are meddling, or there are just too many interruptions and distractions to be totally pleased about work efforts.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Moving business and pleasure won't bring you the results you seek now. You need to keep your feet on the ground in the romance department this week. Watch self-indulgence. It is not the best time to have unnecessary cash. Though there are no major domestic problems family members seem to be involved with their separate interests.

Antiques and Collecting

by Ralph & Terry Kovel

IN THE FAMILY

Research shows that many women who were active in the arts, in the past have been ignored. In fact, when a man died, the family name of a furniture business was often continued by a wife, children or other relatives. Famous ones include Hester Bateman the silvers of London, and Alice Bridgenford, the cabinetmaker. When Johann Lorenz of America died in 1848, his widow took over. The company was called "Glashütte Johann Lorenz Wittwe" which means "The glass factory of the widow of Johann Lorenz." It operated successful and, 20 years later her grandson took over. The firm went out of business during World War II. Lorenz glass, especially the iridescent gold glass, has become very popular with collectors and prices are up there.

Want to find out if you really know about antiques? Try this quiz: (1) Who is Jasper Ware? (2) What is "spelled Bridgewood or Wedgwood"? (3) What did the brothers Charles and Ray Eames do? (4) Describe a piece of furniture designed by Herman Miller. (5) When was the Governor Winthrop desk first made? (6) What did Reinhold and Erdmann Schiegel's stick make?

This should really have been an April Fool question because it is filled with tricks (1) Jasper is a type of stoneware. It was often blue and was made by the famous company started by Josiah Wedgwood. (2) There is no "e" between the "g" and the "a" in the spelling of that famous company's name. Others have used the name spelled with a second "e," probably to confuse customers. (3) Charles and Ray Eames were husband and wife, not brothers. They designed many things in the mid-1900s including chairs for Herman Miller, Inc. (4) Herman Miller was a businessman and did not design any furniture. The firm named for him is still making modern furniture. (5) Governor Winthrop of Massachusetts was in office from 1629 to 1648. The desk named after him is a 1920s idea. (6) Reinhold Schiegel's stick made?

Paint & Household

Q. We have a kitchen table which has a plastic laminated wood grain top that has lost its shine and looks drab. I would like to know if something I could put on it to make it look nice again. The table is still new with no matching chairs and we do not feel that we could replace them. We are in our 70s, and we a problem. Thank you for any help you may be able to give me. E.J.

A. Two things could be causing this: Tung Oil and the second is lacquer thinner. Tung oil comes in a bottle and is applied with a soft cloth, and when it dries, you get the wet look. Another soft cloth. The finish is rock hard, easy to apply and resembles a varnished finish.

I mentioned lacq ·erthinner, which is a relatively new paint product that I've has several opportunities to work with the most recent being a very large wood refinig in a hot tub. Lacq·erthinner is also easy to apply easy to clean up (soap and water) dries quicker and doesn't yellow.

Both either of these suggested applications, having a clean surface is important to insure proper adhesion.

Q. Can you tell us how to get the smell of urine out of a cellar concrete floor? It would be very appreciated. A.T.

A. As I'm sure you've tried every thing I'm about to recommend, I went to the expert, Jerry Jurus, from Bermudian Hardware store. Jerry said that Pine Sol will do the trick. I didn't press any further. Jerry's the kind of guy who, when you ask him the time, tells you how to build a watch.

Give it a try if you already haven't, or go to your local wealth of knowledge, your hardware store and see what they suggest. If there's something better let me know. My daughter, Lauren, recently convinced me that what we desperately need at the D'Angelo household is another puppy.

Q. I have a small hole in my wall caused by the doorknob hitting it. I have since put in a door stop, and I would like to know the best method for repairing the hole. Z.L.

A. First, cut a piece of cardboard slightly larger than the hole to provide a backing. Put a piece of wire through the cardboard, push the cardboard into the hole. Bring the cardboard into the hole. Bring a piece or small stick around the wire to hold the cardboard against the back of the hole.

Use patching plaster to fill the hole, as it sets extremely fast. Mix according to directions using cold water, which will allow more time before it starts to set. On the first application don't be too concerned for smoothness, and remember indentations are better than bumps.

Once the first application hardens (usually 15 minutes), stop the wire and push the remainder into the wall and begin your second application. When the plaster starts to harden, sprinkle some water on it and using your putty knife, smooth out the surface. This is called polishing, and you'll be surprised how smooth the patch will be.

DEAR DEX

by Dexter Dyer

DEAR DEX:

This is my first time writing to an advice columnist, but I really need some help. I'm 19 years old, and have been divorced from my husband for three years. However, I'm living with him at his parents' house at this time. Recently, I still care for him very much. I have been seeing a man with another man for two years, and have lived with him in the past. He has been a great help to me. I would like him to keep on caring for me. Whom should I choose?

UNSURE

DEAR UNSURE:

I'm afraid I really can't be of much help to you. This is a choice you're going to have to make on your own. However I will tell you that it is more than understandable that you still have feelings of responsibility and caring for your ex-husband. You must have been married a number of years and habits that are so long standing are very hard to break. Naturally there is still an attachment.

However, as far as the other man is concerned, if he fulfills your needs and is good to you, then you have your answer right there.

DEAR DEX:

My wife and I have been having an argument about a friend of hers. His girlfriend is his first cousin (and they're more than blasted cousins, if you know what I mean.) My wife says it's illegal for them to marry, and I say it's okay. Who's right?

CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS:

I'm no lawyer but I'm pretty sure that first cousins cannot marry, no matter where they live. They are considered as close as siblings and as such, cannot marry and have children.
